

Tim, his wife, Genevieve, and their dog, Frankie, moved to Tucson from Boston in late 2021. Their daughter, Etta, was born about a year later. Tim has a B.S. in Economics-Finance from Bentley University and an M.S. in Real Estate Development from MIT. He has about 15 years of experience in commercial real estate across a variety of roles including valuation, acquisitions, and portfolio management.

Tim currently serves on the board and is working closely with Brian Bickell current FCHOA treasurer.
